January
Week beginning...	Assessment Objective	Content to develop	RED No Evidence	Amber – In progress	Green On target	Weeks left
Monday 8th	A.O.1 Research & Investigations Theme/Artists A.O.3 – Recording Ideas	- Create a mind map on your 'exam question' - Start Research pages on artists that interest you. (Analyse images and explain your thoughts and ideas) [Remember use 'literacy' sheets and writing prompts to support you and make sure to use art specific words]				18
Monday 15th	A.O.1 – Research & Investigations A.O.3 – Recording Ideas	- Continue to develop Research Pages . Write in detail or use bullet points depending on your confidence levels. - Make copies of art works to develop your practical skills and help you to recognise key characteristics.				17
Monday 22nd	A.O.1 – Research & Investigations A.O.3 – Recording Ideas	- Continue to develop research pages (as above). Look at a range of artists. You could extend your analysis by comparing artists. Make it clear in your book what you think and what IDEAS you are starting to have about the art work. - Take photos or/and find images which relate to your theme eg: portraiture/natural forms. Present them in your sketchbook. Make sure to ANNOTATE your images and explain where they came from. - Produce drawings (different styles eg: line/tone/sketch)				16
Monday 29th	As Above	Continue to ' grow your sketchbook ' by developing 'copies', written analysis. Continue to gather imagery/photos Use those to develop your own studies and drawings.				15
	February
Monday 5th	A.O.1/A.O.3/ As above A.O.2 – Exploring Ideas using different materials and techniques	Continue to develop your sketchbook – Remember by May you will need evidence for all of the assessment objectives in your book. Students will work at different paces and generate work at different times depending on ' their own personal creative ' journey. Most of you will be ready to start developing your own PRACTICAL work using different [OWN VERSIONS]				14
Monday 12th	As Above	- ' Growing your sketchbook/The creative Journey '. Extend, add, develop a) Research/analysis b) Photos/Drawings/Studies c) Own Versions and experiments inspired by your artists and using materials and techniques inspired by your research and investigations				13

Monday 19th	As Above	- As Above				12
Monday 20th	As Above	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 'Growing and Developing your sketchbook' Working with independence to show your ideas from that initial starting point. The big aim to build a volume of work that relates to the Assessment Objectives. Annotation, titles and written notes on each of your pages should communicate your IDEAS and you should be explain what you are doing and why. Keep going, keep thinking, keep doing/creating!				11
	March
Monday 4th	As Above with greater focus on A.O.2 and A.O.3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Create 'own versions'. Use a range of materials and techniques and work in a similar way to the artists that you have been looking at. "What do they do and why?" - Explore and experiment with techniques. This will help you to develop your technical ability so that you can produce 'skilful and personal' practical work of your own. This will help you to develop ideas for your own work. 				10
Monday 11th	As Above	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Refer to the DTT sheet in the front of your sketchbooks as well as this sheet. Look at the feedback we have given you and discuss with your teacher ways in which to develop and improve your work. - CONTINUE TO GENERATE WORK 				9
	April
Monday 1st	Final Stages of Exam preparation ... A.O.1/A.O.2/A.O.3 evidence needed 'consistently in sketchbook' to achieve a Grade 4 or above	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Continue to 'Grow sketchbook' and ensure the 'creative journey is clear' through careful presentation and annotation [All work stuck in and organised – pride taken in presenting work in book]. - Develop 'own versions' which clearly show personal ideas for a final piece and that clearly relate to investigations and artists. - Practise and develop techniques so that you are confident. Remember the big aim: To produce a personal and skilful final piece during the 10 hour exam (end of May)				6

Monday 8th	As Above	- As above				5
Monday 15th	A.O.2 Planning and refining Ideas for your final piece	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Create 'planning pages'. This could take the form of: - Written notes or mind map explaining what you could do - Sketches (thumbnail) or larger scale which show that you are exploring ideas for your final piece (eg: materials you will use ... surface ... scale .. composition Images you will need/use/work from) 				4
Monday 22nd	A.O.2/A.O.4 Planning/Refining/Modifying ideas for your final piece	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Develop 'mini pieces' which show that you are practising techniques and exploring compositions for your final piece. This is important as it enables you to refine your ideas ready for the 10 hour exam - Prepare and organise materials and surface for your final exam (canvas/board/prime/visualizer use) 				3
Monday 29th	10 hour Exam Week A.O.4	Tuesday 30th April/Wednesday 1st May (11B) Thursday 2nd May/Friday 3rd May (11C) Exam sketchbooks to be submitted with exam piece for immediate assessment.				2
