

COLFOX BULLETIN 3

HEADTEACHER NEWS

Well done to everyone involved in our school show Macbeth this week - thank you for a wonderful performance. Thanks especially to Mrs Holder, Head of Drama, for producing an amazing show, and well done to all students who performed and also to the backstage and technical crew. It is on again tonight (Fri) and tickets are available on the door, the Friends of Colfox will be serving refreshments, please bring cash although they also take cards, thank you to the Friends for providing this, all money raised will benefit our Students. Well done to all Students who took part in Human Rights Day. On Wednesday Y8 enjoyed Theatre Production 'Smashed' which highlighted the dangers of underage drinking. Some of our Y11 Students have been working with Bridmet & Dorset Careers Hub to promote National Apprenticeship Week. Have a good weekend, Adam Shelley, Head Teacher

UPCOMING EVENTS

Week Beginning 27/1/25

Week A

Wed 29 Jan - Year 9 Options Evening

Wed 29 Jan - UKMT Intermediate Maths Challenge

Thur 30 Jan - Student Librarian Meeting

Following week: Mon 3 Feb - Y11 Mock Exams begin

WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS

School Show - Macbeth Well Done Everyone!

Human Rights Day

Theatre Show covers dangers of underage drinking

YEAR 9 - OPTIONS EVENING

Y9 - Come to Options Evening!

Sir John Colfox Academy
2025-27

Key Stage 4 Guide
Curriculum Options

We're looking forward to welcoming Year 9 Students and Parents and Carers to our Options Evening on Wednesday (29th) at 6pm. There will be a presentation in the Main Hall and then there will be the opportunity to visit subject teachers to discuss the courses on offer. All Students will be given a Curriculum Options Guide which sets out the process, the timelines and gives details of the GCSE courses on offer.

DEPARTMENT NEWS - DESIGN

Here are some creative outcomes from our first round of Y8 DT Timbers and Textiles classes. Students were creative, hardworking and as you can see from the photos, they produced highly professional outcomes. We look forward to seeing what our next groups produce!