

COLFOX BULLETIN 6

HEADTEACHER NEWS

Our Students shone at Bankfest this week, interviewing and enjoying workshops with high profile people from a variety of creative fields. I was proud to hear that our Students volunteered to do many of the interviews on stage at the event - well done all! The three-day Bankfest Writing Festival was organised by the brilliant Bank of Dreams and Nightmares at Weymouth Pavilion and more than 40 Students in our Y10, 11 & 12 enjoyed it and found out about new careers they didn't even know existed. It was an inspiring event, thank you to all at the Bank. It was great to meet our Year 7 families yesterday at our Belonging Event, thank you to the Colfox Choir for their wonderful performance. Students enjoyed watching and performing in our Variety Show - well done to overall winner Niamh. Have a good weekend, Adam Shelley, Headteacher
