

COLFOX BULLETIN 8

HEADTEACHER NEWS

Thank you to Bridport Round Table for generously giving £760 sponsorship to our Colfox Netball Teams, this money has been used to pay for their fantastic new kits - thank you. It was great to welcome so many people to our Joint Sixth Form Open Evening, it was packed in the hall with standing room only, if you missed it here is our new Sixth Form Prospectus and here is the Application Form the deadline to apply is 12 December. Our busy school fell silent for two minutes at 11am on Remembrance Day, as we remembered the sacrifices made for us. We were delighted to welcome Bridport Literary Festival and the public to Colfox, our Sixth Formers enjoyed the talk on William Blake. Our drama students enjoyed a trip to see the play Woyzeck, well done also to Students who led the United Nations Assembly. Thank you also to the Colfox Friends who are making a real difference and awarding money to enrich our Students lives across our school. Thank you to Joni in Year 10 for designing them a brilliant logo - its amazing! Have a good weekend,
Adam Shelley, Headteacher

The Teenage Brain

Thursday 27th November at 12:30pm

Join the Mental Health Support Team for Schools in Dorset online for an insightful webinar exploring the fascinating changes that occur in the teenage brain.

We'll delve into key areas of brain development and discuss how these changes impact behaviour, thinking, and relationships during adolescence.

The session will also offer practical, evidence-based strategies that parents and carers can use to support their teens through this critical stage of growth.

Whether you're navigating mood swings, risk-taking, or communication challenges, this webinar will equip you with tools to foster connection and support your child during this stage in their life.
