

COLFOX BULLETIN 9

HEADTEACHER NEWS

This week we have been enjoying Science Week & celebrating the power of curiosity! We've explored the Artemis Mission to Space, met snakes, (who were very well looked after) welcomed 150 primary school pupils up for our Space Show, made terrariums and observed dissection demonstrations. Thank you to Ms David, Dr Sharma & all in Science for a fantastic two weeks of Science! We are very proud of all our Y10 Students who have been doing a great job on their work experience. We have been visiting them and getting great reports from employers. Thank you to all employers, who've created a fantastic range of opportunities for our young people. Our Year 12 Students are considering their next steps and enjoyed a trip to the UCAS fair in Exeter. Rehearsals are underway for our Spring Concert, we look forward to welcoming Parents & Carers! Don't forget Friday is non uniform day. If you can please buy a ticket for our Easter 'Win Your Height in Eggs' raffle, money raised supports Colfox Students. Quick reminder again that Students can wear optional summer uniform next term if they like. Have a good weekend, Adam Shelley, Headteacher
