English	Language: The most important message we would like to relay here is that it is possible to revise for English Language! Students can remember and practise the skills that they will use in the exams. Cambridge University Press have produced a series of AQA-approved textbooks for the new 1-9 qualifications. Although costly, they are of excellent quality and have been approved by the board as suitable for use in preparation for the exams. This is not the case for textbooks produced by most other publishers. The CUP textbooks comprehensively cover the skills that students need to practise in order to prepare for the AQA English Language GCSE. If you do not wish to purchase one of these texts, then BBC Bitesize provides generic coverage of exam skills (it is not specifically linked to the AQA exam). Details for the textbooks and website above are as follows:-

CUP AQA Progress ISBN: 9781107453135 RRP: £19.00
CUP AQA Progress Plus (higher ability) ISBN: 9781107452978 RRP: £19.00

Literature: Firstly, know which texts you are studying! For Shakespeare, the Cambridge Schools editions are excellent, as are Arden Editions. Secondary texts: York Notes are good especially the 'advanced versions' for those wanting to hit 7 – 9 grades. CGP Publishing produce excellent revision guides on all Literature texts, often with very helpful past questions and model responses. Lastly, online provision is excellent. Students can download the PiXLit App from Google Play or the App Store; we will demonstrate this fantastic software to students prior to the Christmas holidays. Websites such as Shmoop, Sparknotes and Litcharts also give good coverage of the exam texts. York notes ISBN numbers and prices are below:
