Dear Students, Parents and Guardians,

Joint Sixth Form Summer Ball Change of Date

Following the government announcement last night that the 'unlocking' date of June 21st was being pushed back, I am pleased to say that we have managed to shift the Sixth Form Summer Ball date to July 19th – the 'new' unlocking day.

All other details remain the same: the ball takes place at Symondsburry Estate and students should be at the venue for photographs at 7.30pm. There are still some tickets available, costing £20 from WisePay.

Clearly, caveats exist and should the government once again shift the unlocking date further back in to the summer we would need to postpone the Sixth Form Summer Ball until the new academic year.

If the change of date means any student is now unable to attend, please contact me and we will organise full refunds.

Dress Code

Please let me take this opportunity to remind you about the Joint Sixth Form dress code. Students were today reminded of expectations: Sixth Form students enjoy being role models to other students across both sites, and, as such, are expected to wear clothing appropriate for an academic school environment.

Girls should not wear or have:

- Low-cut or revealing tops
- Mini skirts
- Midriff on display
- Visible underwear including bra straps / spaghetti straps
- Hotpants or very short shorts

Boys should not wear or have:

- Vest tops
- Underwear on display / trousers worn at a low height
- Very short shorts

All students should not wear or have:

- Offensive or provocative slogans
- Beach wear (including flip flops)
- Hats indoors

Thank you for your continued support. See you on July 19th at Symondsburry!

Yours faithfully,

Adam Teasdale
